Devonshire House, Exeter University, EX4 4PZ.

★ Book Now for the South West's Autumn Viewing

We're delighted to be back at Devonshire House on the Exeter University campus as guests of CinSoc. The screenings in the main cinema will be on 35mm whilst the second venue upstairs will be using one of the Group's digital rigs. Finalising the programme is almost complete but, in response to a number of enquiries, here is the application form with details of the five great titles already confirmed.

To be sure of your place, send off the application form now to the contact for this Viewing, by post to Anne Hooper or by email to annehooper@aol.com. For the latest up-dates, as the titles are confirmed and detailed maps, visit www.bffssouthwest.org.uk.

EXCITING PROGRAMME on 35 mm and DVD ...including...

★ SOMERS TOWN – Shane Meadows's latest, a charming and often hilarious tale of an odd teenage couple shot in crisp black and white.

★ SUMMER HOURS (l'Heure d'été)– Juliette Binoche leads a terrific ensemble cast in Olivier Assayas' exploration of French heritage.

★ THE VISITOR – An impressive follow-up from the director of The Station Agent with a similar gentleness and subtle use of humour starring Richard Jenkins (Six Feet Under) as an up-tight university professor.

★ IN SEARCH OF A MIDNIGHT KISS – a quirky romance reminiscent of Before Sunrise as our slacker hero searches for a date for New Year's Eve.

★ THE POPE'S TOILET (El Bano del Papa) – bittersweet farce set during the Pope's 1988 visit to a small Uruguayan border town.

★ FURTHER TITLE to be confirmed

plus new shorts and the famous FSW Quiz

TICKETS: £15 each (full-time students only £13.50) including Coffee, Buffet Lunch & Tea and Reviews Booklet. Registration from 10am. Organised by Exeter University CinSoc and BFFS South West
