Terms and Conditions

- 1. It is understood that Q Wedding Photography is retained as the exclusive official photographer of the wedding.
2. A wedding is only accepted and confirmed on receipt of the official booking form together with the payment of the £150 booking fee.
3. In the event of cancellation of the wedding or of this contract, we regret that any monies paid will be non-refundable.
4. In accordance with the 1988 Copyright Act, Q Wedding Photography retains copyright on all photographs taken and reserve the right to use such photographs for display and advertising unless specifically agreed in writing to the contrary.
5. Whilst every care is taken, in the unlikely event of any or all of the photographs failing to materialise due to any cause, the liability of Q Wedding Photography will be limited to the refunding of a proportion of monies paid.
6. In all matters regarding location, composition, posing and numbers of photographs taken, the judgement of Q Wedding Photography shall be final and deemed correct.
7. Q Wedding Photography agree not to change the coverage fee once booked, the prices of reprints and other ancillary products are subject to an annual price increase (if applicable).
