

Rockcliffe West

19th Century spacious house set in the heart of the South Pennines on the edge of Bronte Country

Featured in 'Hidden Yorkshire'

Proprietor: Ginny Hodgson

Luddendenfoot

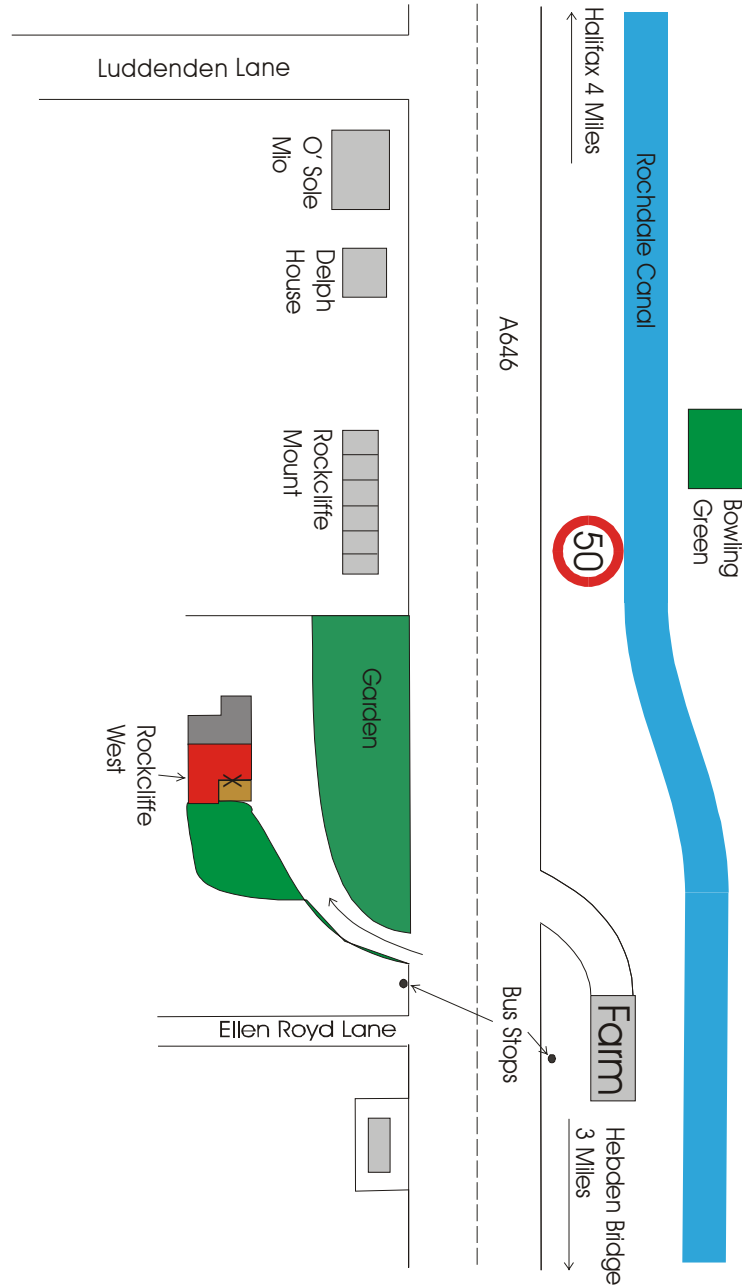

Halifax

HX2 6HL

Telephone: 01422 882151

www.rockcliffewest.co.uk

Email: rockcliffe.b.b@virgin.net

Heptonstall and Stoodley Pike coming from Howarth

Views of surrounding area

Packhorse Bridge at nearby Hebden Bridge

Rockcliffe West

English Tourist Board 4 Diamonds

‘The perfect place to relax in comfort’

Built in 1872, this spacious tastefully decorated house is quietly secluded amidst mature private gardens with beautiful views of the surrounding hillsides.

Conveniently situated on the A646 between Hebden Bridge and Halifax it is an ideal location for both tourists and business people to relax after a busy day.

Pubs and food are available within walking distance.

1 Twin/Family room

and

1 Double room

Each with its own bathroom.

Tea and Coffee making facilities

TV

Central heating

Private off road parking.

‘Let us spoil you at Rockcliffe West’

Bed & Breakfast at it’s Best.